Local court reporter to serve on national board RandiAnn Harvey, from Cambridge, Minn., to serve three-year term

RESTON, Va., Aug. 6, 2024 — The National Court Reporters Association (NCRA), the country’s leading organization representing stenographic court reporters, captioners, and legal videographers, has announced that RandiAnn Harvey, RDR, CRR, CRC, an official court reporter from Cambridge, Minn., has been appointed to serve a three-year term as Director. The announcement was made at the 2024 NCRA Conference & Expo that took place Aug. 1-3, in Louisville, Ky.

Harvey holds the nationally recognized professional certifications of Registered Diplomate Reporter (RDR), Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR), and Certified Realtime Captioner (CRC). She began her court reporting career in 1991, working as a freelance court reporter until 1999 when she became an official court reporter for the Minnesota Fourth Judicial District. In 2002 Harvey became an official court reporter for the Minnesota Tenth Judicial District where she continues to serve. In 2014 and 2020 the court recognized her with its Judicial District Spot Award, and in 2020 she was honored with its Judicial District Achievement Award.

Harvey is a past president of the Minnesota Association of Verbatim Reporters & Captioners and was awarded the Association’s Award of Excellence in 2017.

Harvey is a graduate of the Minnesota School of Business.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The court reporting and captioning professions offer viable career choices that do not require a four-year college degree and yet offer good salaries, flexible schedules, and interesting venues. There is currently an increasing demand for more reporters and captioners to meet the growing number of employment opportunities available nationwide and abroad. Court reporters and captioners rely on the latest in technology to use stenographic machines to capture the spoken word and translate it into written text in real time. These professionals work both in and out of the courtroom recording legal cases and depositions, providing live captioning of events, and assisting members of the deaf and hard-of-hearing communities with gaining access to information, entertainment, educational opportunities, and more.

To arrange an interview with a working court reporter or captioner, or to learn more about the lucrative and flexible court reporting or captioning professions and the many job opportunities currently available, contact pr@ncra.org.

About NCRA

The National Court Reporters Association (NCRA) has been internationally recognized for promoting excellence among those who capture and convert the spoken word to text for 125 years. NCRA is committed to supporting its more than 12,000 members in achieving the highest level of professional expertise with educational opportunities and industry-recognized court reporting, educator, and videographer certification programs. NCRA impacts legislative issues and the global marketplace through its actively involved membership.

Forbes has named court reporting as one of the best career options that do not require a traditional four-year degree. The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that the court reporting field is expected to be one of the fastest areas of projected employment growth across all occupations. According to 247/WallSt.com, the court reporting profession ranks sixth out of 25 careers with the lowest unemployment rate, just 0.7 percent. Career information about the court reporting profession—one of the leading career options that do not require a traditional four-year degree—can be found at NCRA DiscoverSteno.org.
